Product number BML-9860-STKD-376-ES1521KL-9007

Product description

Module with surface-mounted socket - JUNG ES1521KL - SCHUKO® 16 A 250 V with stainless steel hinged cover

The modular socket module is the appropriate addition for modular socket columns and enables a flexible, demand-oriented configuration of the power distribution. It was specifically designed for use in ORDO socket columns.

The socket module is designed for easy installation. It is inserted into the designated module receptacle of the socket column and securely fixed there. The thoughtful design allows rapid replacement of individual modules, thereby reducing downtime and enabling efficient expansion.
