Product description

ORDO modular socket column for free-standing installation

The ORDO modular socket pillar is a functional and durable solution for a secure outdoor power supply. It is suitable for use in gardens, on terraces, on campsites, in residential complexes and in commercial or public areas. Thanks to its clear design language and robust construction, the socket column can be used in a variety of ways.

Made of galvanised steel and powder-coated to a high quality, the socket pillar offers long-lasting protection against corrosion and the effects of the weather. An integrated rain cover additionally protects the sockets from direct moisture. Production takes place at Briefkasten Manufaktur in Germany and stands for precise craftsmanship and quality "Made in Germany".

The ORDO socket pillar is available in two heights and can therefore be optimally adapted to the respective area of use. The modular design enables customised equipping and subsequent adaptation or extension of the socket outlet inserts.

- Socket outlet pillar made of galvanised steel, powder-coated in RAL 7016 anthracite grey fine structure matt.
- German quality production at Briefkasten Manufaktur ("Made in Germany").
- Integrated rain cover to protect against the weather.
- Modular design for individual configuration, e.g. with CEE and Schuko sockets or prepared modules for your own switch programmes.
- Socket outlet modules protected at the rear by high-quality plastic housing.
- Available in two heights:
 - Height approx. 400 mm with up to 3 modules
 - Height approx. 800 mm with up to 6 modules
- Simple and well thought-out installation: Fix the column to the floor, wire it, slide in the front panel and screw it in place.
